

"Hāros Bartossi"
("With Three Heads")
Words by Ti Mikkil and David J. Peterson

Valyrian (Stanza 1)

\(HB_110_1.mp3\)

*Drakari pykiros Tikummo jemiros
Yn lantyz bartossa
Saelot vāedis*

Literal Translation (Stanza 1)

*Fire breather
Winged leader
But two heads
To a third sing*

Valyrian (Stanza 2)

\(HB_110_2.mp3\)

*Hen ñuhā elēnī:
Perzyssy vestretis
Se gēlŷn irūdaks
Ānogrose*

Literal Translation (Stanza 2)

*From my voice:
The fires have spoken
And the price has been paid
With blood magic*

Valyrian (Stanza 3)

\(HB_110_3.mp3\)

*Perzyro udrÿssi
Ezïmptos laehossi
Hārossa letagon
Aōt vāedan*

Literal Translation (Stanza 3)

*With words of flame
With clear eyes
To bind the three
To you I sing*

Valyrian (Stanza 4)

\(HB_110_4.mp3\)

*Hae mērot gierūli:
Se hāros bartossi
Prūmÿsa sōvīli
Gevī dāerī*

Literal Translation (Stanza 4)

*As one we gather
And with three heads
We shall fly as we were destined Beautifully, freely*

Original English (Stanza 1)

*one who breathes fire
one bearing wings
but two heads need three and a spell that sings*

Original English (Stanza 2)

*follow my voice blood magic old
the price has been paid
as the fires foretold*

Original English (Stanza 3)

*in visions of flame listen to me
the spell that needs three is made whole through me*